

"Hospitality Relay Race" winners awarded

The top three winning teams in the annual Hospitality Relay Race received coveted awards at Lancaster Plaza, Raouche in Beirut on November 25. Team Crepaway were first to cross the finish line at Beirut's Martyr Square in the Hospitality Relay Race, during the recently held Beirut Marathon, on November 9, closely followed by team Falamanki and team Junkyard who came second and third respectively. hospitalityservices.com.lb

10 years and still going strong

Hodema consulting services, a leader in Lebanon in terms of hospitality, retail and real estate consultancy with its headquarters in Beirut and covering the Middle East and Africa regions, organized a dinner at La Table d'Alfred on December 10th, 2014 to celebrate the company's 10th year anniversary. hodema.net

Café Diem turns one

Café Diem, the modern bistro situated in Sodeco Square, Beirut, celebrates its first year anniversary. New to the menu, it now offers gourmet offerings through its catering services. cafediem.fr

Sharing is caring in Beirut

Divvy is one of Beirut's latest offerings. Situated in the Mar Mikhael district of the city, the large space includes an urban-chic design, a terrace and a variety of well-crafted plates and cuisine that are sharable.

Al Mandaloun Pâtisserie: a new gourmet destination

Lebanese group Al Mandaloun has opened its new Pâtisserie under the arches and gardens of an old Lebanese house in the Beirut northern suburb of Dbayeh. The innovative concept brings together a patisserie, a bakery, a boutique and a tableware and a kitchen accessories' section to serve its clientele. almandaloun.com

WonderEight opens first office abroad

WonderEight, a Beirut-based design agency, has spread its wings to open an office in Dubai. Its clients include Ocean Spray, Classic Burger Joint, Baker & More, Kris Kros and Microsoft, among others. wondereight.com